

Expectation: Full Day Kindergarten

Begin to share their ideas and responses to texts in a variety of ways.

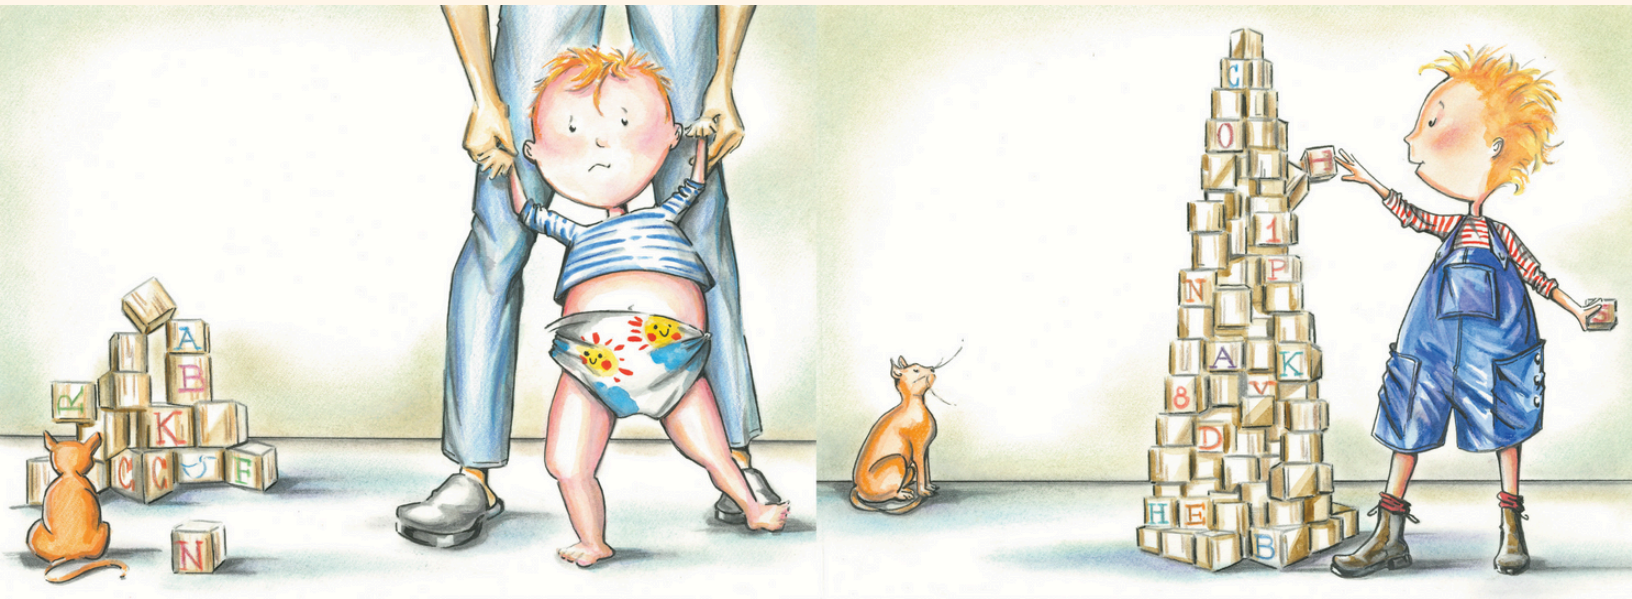

Learn that writing can communicate a message.

Represent their thinking graphically by drawing.

Express their thoughts and ideas with increasingly extensive and specialized vocabulary.

Look at the picture. The child is scared to walk. Then they learn to balance and stand on their own.

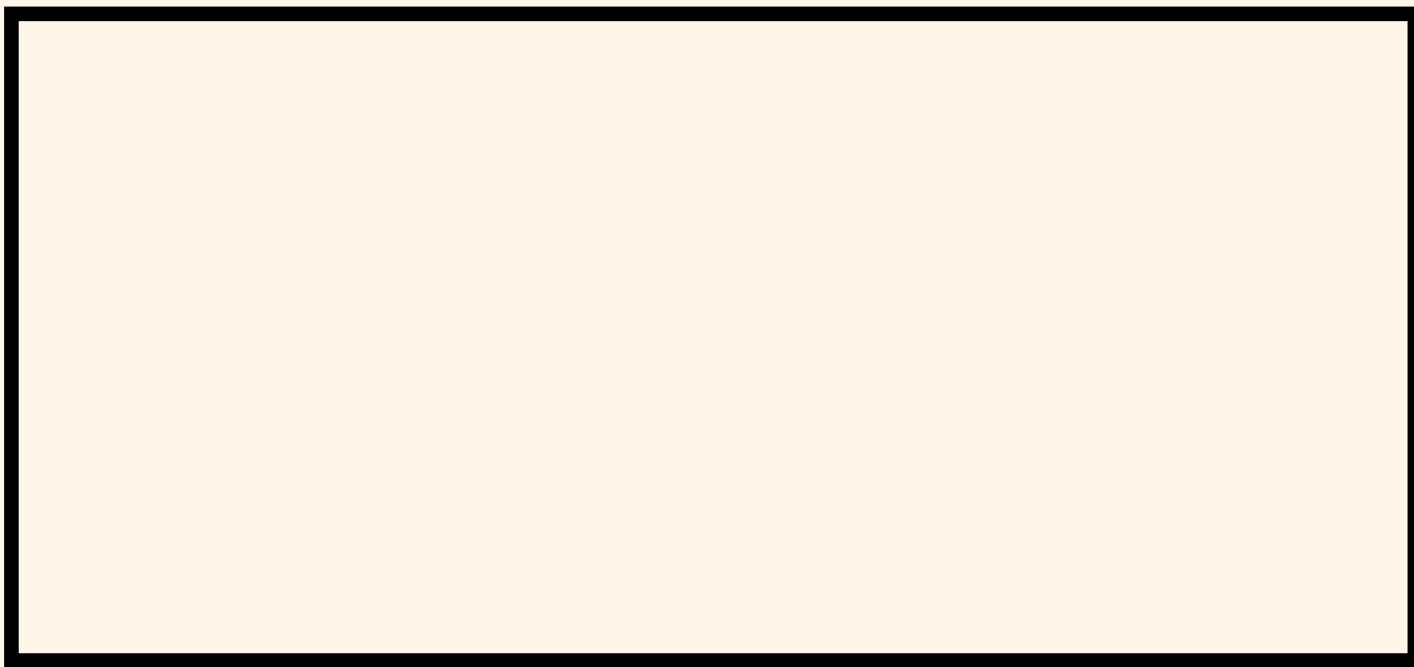

Which words describe this child?

Melanie
THE EDUCATOR

Draw a time you were scared to learn something new.

Try writing words to tell about the time you were scared to learn something new.

Four sets of horizontal lines for writing, each consisting of a solid black top line, a dashed red middle line, and a solid black bottom line.

Melanie
THE EDUCATOR

