

Expectation: Grade 2

C3.5 Identify explicit and implicit perspectives communicated in a text, providing evidence, and describe how these perspectives could influence an audience.

Look closely at this illustration.

Use clues from the pictures, words and your schema, to answer the following questions.

Explicit Perspective (What is the student directly telling us about their feelings and thoughts?)	Implicit Perspective (What hints does this student give us that tell us what they are thinking and feeling?)

How do the student's perspectives about getting a low mark make you feel about your own school work?

How could the student's perspectives about getting a low mark make other readers feel about their school work?
